

Directions

At Interstate 40, take Rio Grande Blvd. south towards Central Avenue—historic Route 66! At the traffic light at Mountain Road, follow Romero Street through Old Town. Go around the Plaza by taking a left turn on South Plaza Street, then turn right onto San Felipe Street. Ahead on the left you'll see our pink two-story grand old house ready to welcome you.

Six of our rooms include king or queen beds, private bathrooms, telephones, free wireless Internet access, hair dryers, air conditioning and cable television. The cozy Fergusson room has two twin beds, and its private bathroom includes an antique claw-foot bathtub.

the perfect spot for a romantic getaway, sightseeing or a business trip home base

In summer, savor our two-course breakfast in the east courtyard and watch the hummingbirds. In cooler weather, the sunny dining room will entice you to linger over your coffee.

We have the best breakfast in Albuquerque!

The Bottger Mansion of Old Town Bed & Breakfast provides seclusion, yet fine restaurants, shops, galleries, museums and Route 66 are right outside the front door. Outdoor activities such as golf, hiking, hot air ballooning and cycling are nearby.
